

Your Mercy is Overflowing Prayer by Christine Moore

Oh, God of infinite abundance,
Your mercy is the water of life.

Flowing freely, Your mercy
soothes our every pain,
comforts our tender wounds,
heals our fractures, and
deeply nourishes our souls.

We rest upon Your waters.
They hold us in each of our days.
They sustain us in all that we do.

Let our forgiveness be vast and flowing water too.

Let compassion be our boat
Let reconciliation be our oars.

We know that we are all sailing Your one sea.

Though, unlike You, Beloved,
we cannot know what burdens
others travel with.

Give us eyes of affectionate awe
seeing those nearest to us,
those at farthest horizons,
and all in between with
lovingkindness,
so that we heal with our words,
unify with our actions,
and love with every cell of our being.

We wish to be ONE
as you have called us to be.

One in your mercy.

One in your grace.

One in your light.

One in your love.

Let us, as one, live lives
without division in infinite unity with You.
